The 3,603 square foot, 5-bedroom and 2.75-bath Belmont floor plan offers a generous helping of space and home features.

On the main level, through double doors, you'll find the spacious den off the foyer, perfect for a secluded workspace. In the next room over you'll find the formal dining room with its signature dramatic coffered ceiling. A butler's pantry featuring an abundance of storage space is situated between the dining and kitchen areas. It features upper and lower cabinets and offers additional prepping space and plenty of storage.

The spectacular open kitchen features a generously sized island with a distinctive slab tabletop that offers a substantial workspace for cooking and entertaining. The kitchen also boasts an abundance of cabinets and drawers to keep food, small appliances, cutlery, and other culinary tools close-at-hand.

The adjacent eating nook leads directly to the large covered patio that's picture-perfect for morning coffee or entertaining outside. The great room blends seamlessly into the rest of this warm, welcoming open area with its beautiful fireplace.

A secluded main level bedroom can act as the home's 5th bedroom or as a convenient guest room. Its adjacent bath offers privacy for guests while remaining near the heart of the house. The mudroom, a practical place for removing dirty outerwear and footwear, is likewise here.

The spacious upper level features 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, a laundry room, and a bonus room/6th bedroom. The master bedroom is carefully laid out with a vaulted ceiling and numerous windows to give this cherished room a dynamic
