The spacious Ravenna floor plan is 4,227 square feet and features 5 bedrooms, 4 bathrooms, a large bonus room, a guest room on the main level, a den, a master retreat, and a 3 car tandem garage.

The main level of the Ravenna is an open concept floor plan which is perfect for entertaining. The large open kitchen features a generous sized eat-in island that flows into the eating nook area and great room space. You can bring the entertainment outside from the eating nook on the large covered rear patio. From the kitchen you can walk through the elegant butler's pantry, which contains a 50 bottle capacity under counter wine cooler, to access to the lovely formal dining room with rich millwork detail. Directly off of the foyer you will find the spacious den which can be utilized as office space, a hobby room, or make it your own flex space.

The main floor guest bedroom is perfect for short or long term visiting friends or family. The adjacent guest bath, with its beautiful designer touches and walk-in tiled shower, helps create a private and easily accessible space for your guests.

The most intriguing detail about the Ravenna home plan is the private master retreat off of the large Master Suite on the upper level of this home. The master retreat, off of the suite, invites you to kick back and relax in your very own flex space. The wall of expansive windows in the Master Suite help fill the room with lots of natural light. The master bath a stunning spa-like master bathroom with a stand-alone soaking tub, a generous walk-in shower and the adjacent master walk-in closet.

On the upper level you will find the additional three bedrooms, a spacious bonus room and 2 bathrooms, with one being a convenient jack-and-jill bathroom.
